Message from

Greetings to All,

Arts transcends all barriers. Arts speak of a language that members from all walks of life, can relate to and be inspired from. One of the great challenges today is that we often feel untouched by the problems of others and by global issues like poverty, war, gender inequality, health equity and even climate change, even when we could easily do something to help. We do not feel strongly enough that we are part of a global community, part of a larger we. Giving people access to data most often leaves them feeling overwhelmed and disconnected, not empowered and poised for action. This is where art can make a difference. Art does not show people what to do, yet engaging with a good work of art can connect you to your senses, body, and mind. It can make the world felt. And this felt feeling may spur thinking, engagement, and even action.

Most of us know the feeling of being moved by a work of art, whether it is a song, a play, a poem, a novel, a painting, or a spatio-temporal experiment. When we are touched, we are moved; we are transported to a new place that is, nevertheless, strongly rooted in a physical experience, in our bodies. We become aware of a feeling that may not be unfamiliar to us but which we did not actively focus on before. This transformative experience is what art is constantly seeking.

I believe that one of the major responsibilities of artists – and the idea that artists have responsibilities may come as a surprise to some – is to help people not only get to know and understand something with their minds but also to feel it emotionally and physically. By doing this, art can mitigate the numbing effect created by the glut of information we are faced with today, and motivate people to turn thinking into doing.

Engaging with art is not simply a solitary event. The arts and culture represent one of the few areas in our society where people can come together to share an experience even if they see the world in radically different ways. The important thing is not that we agree about the experience that we share, but that we consider it worthwhile sharing an experience at all. In art and other forms of cultural expression, disagreement is accepted and embraced as an essential ingredient. In this sense, the community created by arts and culture is potentially a great source of inspiration for politicians and activists who work to transcend the polarising populism and stigmatisation of other people, positions, and worldviews that is sadly so endemic in public discourse today.

Art also encourages us to cherish intuition, uncertainty, and creativity and to search constantly for new ideas; artists aim to break rules and find unorthodox ways of approaching contemporary issues. My good friend, the renowned cartoonist, Zunar, recently is inducted as one of the cartoonists featuring in The Asean Human Rights Cartoon Exhibition. Online 3 May to 30 May 2021. 37 cartoonists from Malaysia, Indonesia, Thailand, Philippines & Myanmar took part in it. The exhibition highlighted various social and human rights issues around ASEAN. This is one way that art can engage with the world to change the world.

The Ramro Cha Coffee Project initiative was started due to a pressing need at that time to rebuild Nepal post-earthquake in 2015. It has since touched and transformed many lives including mine. In short "Ramro Cha" means "Good" in Nepali. The power to do good.

We are facing one of the most challenging times in recent mankind history. The COVID-19 pandemic has opened up a Pandora's box, one in which has both revealed the good and bad sides of humanity. Even so, we must remain hopeful of the future. We must believe that we have within us to navigate this crisis, and come out stronger on the other end.

It is indeed an honour to once again for Osel Group to collaborate with Malaysia Women Artists Association, on the Ramro Cha Coffee Project. This is where creative talents come together and harness their expertise to express love and hope for the community, one that is more important than ever. Osel Group's motto: Connecting Hearts, Empowering Minds, Sustaining Humanity, represents our organization's firm belief in collaborating with like-minded individuals who share similar values for the society. To be given the chance to pen my thoughts here, I am indeed humbled by it all.

Last but not least, I wish the public community can give your most fervent support to this event. For society, community and the nation, together we must do more.

Yours truly,

Dr. Kris See

Medical Director,
Chief Clinical and Innovative Scientist

Message from
President of Malaysian Women Artists Association

Malaysia Women Artists Association is honored and privileged to work together with Osel Group to support education and healthcare for children and students. As an NGO and artist group, we are so glad to be part of the team to join Dr. Kris's vision 'movement for GOOD' on the RamroCha Coffee Project. We show that coffee is more than a drink, we using coffee to paint for love and caring society. We would like to gather coffee lovers, art lovers and artists at all levels to do something beyond art itself. Artists can help charities by contributing their talent, time and compassion to help those in need.

Due to the Covid-19 outbreak we are hosting an online Charity Art Exhibition. By purchasing a piece of artwork you can continue to support us, as the profits go to the charity!

The exhibition features 29 artists, a total of 58 artworks shown online through the website www.mywomenarts.com. All the coffee paintings are showcased in the Website. The participating artists, who have showcased their artworks for the benevolent cause, include,

Siti Mariah Mansor, Chiou Ling Chyi, Yoon Sook Fong, Nurhayati Md Yusoff, Sally Lee, Loo Lay See, Anne Koh, Chuah Guat Yong, Lilly Metom, Danny Neoh, Jennifer Loo Moh See, Khoo Shiau Lee, Gerald Goh, Jijah Mahfuzah, Mak Yik Mei, Shi Yong Fei, Cyan Low, Hwang Sock Tsu, Yong Seow Ping, Lee Weng Khim, Cindy Tan Seok Boon, Celine Khoo Xiang Lin, Loke Hung Tho, Nazhatulshima, Hoo Mei Chee, Koay Shao Peng and Wong Mooi Kuan,.

We're pleased to announce the event beneficiaries are:

- THE MADAM TAN HONG MUI SCHOLARSHIP (AN INITIATIVE FROM OSEL GROUP)
- RAMRO CHA COFFEE PROJECT

We believe that movement for good is to create a loving and caring society.

I sincerely thank and acknowledge to Osel Group, Dr. Kris See for giving us opportunity participate in a social charity movement and his team and every one of you who extend help and support to this event and made this happened.

We look forward to your continued support to our activities, and you can helping others who are in need on their life journey by buying coffee paintings – Where Love, Great Art and Coffee Meet'.

Thank you.
